

Dr. Wee Liang Tan

Director of Consulting and Training Services
NOAH INITIATIVES Pte. Ltd.

Dr. Wee Liang Tan is an accomplished academic and business leader with extensive experience in entrepreneurship, strategic alliances, corporate management, governance, family business, and sustainability.

Dr. Tan is a strong advocate for entrepreneurship that adds value to society, promoting enterprise development, growth, and expansion with a focus on sustainable practices. His commitment to these principles is reflected in his leadership roles in academia, where he has established and developed several new centers, including the NTU Entrepreneurship Development Centre, the UOB-SMU Entrepreneurship Alliance Centre, and the Lien Centre for Social Innovation.

In addition to his academic contributions, Dr. Tan serves as the Lead Independent Director of CWT Holdings Limited and is a key stakeholder with Borderless Healthcare Group. Internationally, he has played a significant role in expanding new markets for a global professional body, the predecessor of the Chartered Governance Institute, where he served as Chairman of the Professional Standards Committee.

Dr. Tan holds a Ph.D. from Eindhoven University of Technology, a Master of Science from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a Master of Laws (LL.M.) from the University of Cambridge, and a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) from the National University of Singapore.

His unique background in both law and business consulting enables him to provide insightful and relevant advice, making him a valuable asset to the NOAH INITIATIVES Board.
