

Dr. Ravinder Kumar Zutshi

Strategist

NOAH INITIATIVES Pte. Ltd.

Dr. Ravinder Kumar Zutshi is a seasoned academic with extensive expertise in Strategy, International Business, Business and Society, and Entrepreneurship. He has held prestigious professorial roles at institutions like San Diego State University, IIM Lucknow, Nanyang Technological University, and Long Island University. Additionally, he has been a visiting professor at IIT Delhi, the University of Ljubljana, and Eindhoven Technological University.

Dr. Zutshi is a prolific scholar, widely published in his fields, and has served as Managing Editor of the Journal of Enterprising Culture. He has also been on the Editorial Boards of the Journal of Small Business Management and the International Journal of Technological Management.

Beyond academia, Dr. Zutshi has significantly impacted public policy in India. He has contributed to the development of policies on Public Enterprises, Industrial Training, Rural Labour, and Industrialization, collaborating with the Planning Commission of India and various state governments. He has also advised global financial institutions, including the World Bank and Exim Bank, on critical issues like youth employment.

Currently, Dr. Zutshi is the Honorary International Eminent Fellow at the Rajiv Gandhi Institute for Contemporary Studies. His rich academic and policy experience makes him a valuable asset to NOAH INITIATIVES.